

Hint 1

Review how to compute the minimum distance between two convex polygons in linear time with the Minkowski sum.

Hint 2

Construct a graph with the vertices as islands.

Hint 3

Find the minimum spanning tree of the graph.

Hint 4

The edges of your graph store the distance between any two islands. What happens in the case that the bridge computed from this intersects an island in the middle?